

System Settings

In this module, your System Administrator adds and manages users, units, and sites.

User Access

If you cannot find specific purchase orders, employees, reports, and the like, you may not have access in System Settings.

Contact your System Administrator so they can check your access and, if necessary, modify your user settings.

